1. Arnulfo Arias will leave Mexico between 10 and 15 September 1948. His destination is not certain, but should he return to Costa Rica, it is thought a Panamanian revolution would be imminent. Should he decide to go to the United States a Panamanian revolt would be improbable.
2. A Panamanian named Guillermo Rodriguez is reported to have left San Jose on 3 September to go to Mexico City to bring Arias to the Guatemala border by car. The Dominican Colonel Miguel Angel Ramirez left San Jose for Guatemala on 5 September to complete arrangements for the transportation of Arias from the Guatemalan border to his ultimate destination.
